COURSE OVERVIEW

This class is designed to equip you with practical skills that will facilitate teaching success in today's college classrooms. Our faculty assert that future scholars must be capable teachers. Furthermore, they agree that even those students who do not pursue an academic career will receive considerable benefit from the experience of teaching. Thus, P660 is a required part of our psychology program. Ideally P660 will be taken during your 1st year graduate school, and P660 must be taken prior to the P211 laboratory instruction teaching internship.

COURSE GOALS

Successful students will be:

- Prepared to teach effectively, in the P211 lab, in undergraduate courses, and beyond the classroom. This preparation will span the entire teaching process, from curriculum design and syllabus composition to lecture preparation and delivery, through assessment and grading
- Motivated and equipped to teach well
- Well versed in the critical aspects of classroom management including the rights and responsibilities of both students and instructors, ethics, and how to promote a diverse and inclusive classroom
- Primed to document and professionally present their teaching abilities to further their career goals

TEXTBOOK & COURSE MATERIALS

We will not be using a textbook for this course. All of the readings and notes that you need will be presented in class and/or provided for you on Canvas (but if you would like recommendations for a few excellent books on teaching college students, I would be more than happy to provide recommendations).

ASSIGNMENTS / GRADING

Your progress in P660 will be measured through in-class discussion participation, performance on the assignments listed below, and on the faculty and student evaluations received after successful performance as a P211 associate instructor subsequent to P660. P660 will be graded on a deferred-R basis. Letter grades will be assigned (replacing the R) after you have taught P211, revised your and teaching statement, and your teaching evaluations have been reviewed and factored into your grade.

The teaching evaluation portion of your P660 grade is made up of two components:

- 1) Scores from the supplemental SEEQ questions presented on our department's end-of-semester course evaluations.
- 2) Feedback from teaching observations. At least twice during your tenure as a P211 lab instructor, a teaching mentor will observe portions of your lab classes and provide feedback on your teaching.

Your final grade is computed using the following formula:

Syllabus and Assignment Creation	15%
Microteaching	15%
Paper Grading (Norming Session)	15%
Teaching Statement (draft & final version)	15%
Class Participation	15%
P211 Lab Visit and Report	5%
Participation in IU's Classroom Climate Workshop (prior to teaching P211)	5%
FERPA and Title IX Training	5%
Teaching Evaluations	10%
Total	100%

FEEDBACK

Do not wait until the end of the semester course evaluations to let me know that I could be doing something better. Tell me as soon as possible so that I can make the class as valuable and relevant as possible as we go along. If you have any feedback, good or bad, about the course or how it's being taught, please feel free to send it to me anonymously using this link:

<http://www.indiana.edu/~rahteach/feedback.html>

ACADEMIC HONESTY

This course is conducted under the University's Ethics Code. Specifically, it is considered cheating if you obtain any kind of information about answers and solutions to the work in this course from any non-intended source (including your peers) or conversely transfer such information to others. It is also considered cheating if you lie to me about an absence relating to a homework assignment, quiz, or exam. The punishment for academic dishonesty may include a grade reduction or a zero on any quizzes, assignments, and/or exercises, failure of the course, and/or other actions as determined by the instructor and/or the Dean of Students.

STATEMENT FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Every attempt will be made to accommodate qualified students with disabilities (e.g. mental health, learning, chronic health, physical, hearing, vision neurological, etc.) You must have established your eligibility for support services through the appropriate office that services students with disabilities. Note that services are confidential, may take time to put into place and are not retroactive; Captions and alternate media for print materials may take three or more weeks to get produced. Please contact Disability Services for Students at <http://disabilityservices.indiana.edu> or 812-855-7578 as soon as possible if accommodations are needed. The office is located on the third floor, west tower, of the Well Library, Room W302. Walk-ins are welcome 8 to 5, Monday to Friday.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND TITLE IX POLICY

As your instructor, one of my responsibilities is to create a positive learning environment for all students. Title IX and IU's Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibit sexual misconduct in any form, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, and dating and domestic violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help.

If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with:

- The Sexual Assault Crisis Services (SACS) at (812) 855-8900 (counseling services)
- Confidential Victim Advocates (CVA) at (812) 856-2469 (advocacy and advice services)
- IU Health Center at (812) 855-4011 (health and medical services)

It is also important that you know that Title IX and University policy require me to share any information brought to my attention about potential sexual misconduct, with the campus Deputy Title IX Coordinator or IU's Title IX Coordinator. In that event, those individuals will work to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. Protecting student privacy is of utmost concern, and information will only be shared with those that need to know to ensure the University can respond and assist.

I encourage you to visit stopsexualviolence.iu.edu to learn more.
